Dear Dr. Boyd:

I would appreciate the favor of a reprint of your paper on the relationship between lytic and lysogenic phage in Salmonella that appeared in J.P.B. last year. I regret that by inadvertence, your name has escaped my mailing list; this will be corrected promptly. The enclosed will give some clues to the directions of our interest. Please note that in K-12, sensitive x sensitive crosses are fully fertile, contra various speculations.

If you can spare a second copy, Mr. Zinder would like to have a reprint of the same paper.

Sincerely,

Joshua Lederberg
